Image Usage Release

We have an amazing summer of fun planned for summer vacation for our big kids! We love to take lots of pictures to show all the cool things the children will be doing and would love to be able to post them on our website, facebook, twitter or maybe even a printable ad. We don't ever use the children's names. Using the images in this way allows LPL parents, potential parents, and staff members to see all the fun we will be having and also get ideas for things they can do at home or in classrooms.

If you are ok with us using your child's image, please sign the release below.

I, _____, give Little People's Landing permission to use my child's image for advertising, promotional, or staff educational purposes. This may include LPL website, facebook, twitter or printed material such as brochures, signage or ads.
